THEY SAY
—That you must be a doer of good if you would reap reward.
—That a certain man ought to keep out of women's affairs in their organizations.
—That you should cast the beam out of your own eye before you should consider the mote in your brother's eye.
—That an irate husband on the South Side is gunning for a certain preacher whom he says he is going to bring down at the first shot.
—That a certain school marm told her "steady" that unless he proposed before the new year he'd have to hustle for his peck chops. Ain't that a shame?
—That a young man living in the Y. M. C. A. apartments says he can hardly realize as he walks down the corridors that he is living here and not working in a large modern hotel.

Farmington, Mo., Dec. 7, 1914.
Hon. Nelson C. Crews, Editor and Owner of the Kansas City Sun:
I am a constant reader of the Kansas City Sun, and I thought that I would write you to see if you did not think it a wise thing to make Betty and Sam a Christmas present of a pair of shoes and stockings, as the weather is getting cool and they also look chilly, and Betty's hat is also out of style.
Yours truly,
A reader of the Sun.
BOOKER T. BAKER, 6 Years Old.
A CORRECTION.
The George R. Smith college of Sedalia, Mo., wishes the Sun to correct a statement made sometime ago that Western University had defeated George R. Smith college in football with a score of 42-6. They write that George R. Smith college has never been defeated this season and has not even played W. U. in football in season.
